ORDER
(Passed on 20th July, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by

S.R. Nayak, CJ.

In this writ petition, the validity of Clause 9 (2) of the Chhattisgarh Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2004 (for short 'the Control Order, 2004') is called in question. In addition, the Circular issued by the Principal Secretary, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection Department dated 23.03.2005 and certain other orders and communications issued by the subordinate authorities of the Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection are also assailed. At the threshold, it needs to be noticed that the Circular issued by the Principal Secretary and the orders and communications issued by the subordinate authorities of the Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection are all under the Control Order, 2004.

(2) On an earlier occasion, a batch of writ petitions (W.P. NO.445/2005 and batch) were preferred questioning certain provisions of the Control Order, 2004. This Court by its order dated 06.09.2005 disposed of those writ petitions with certain declarations and directions. The operative portion of the order reads as follows:

"(44) In the result, we hold that :-

(i) the provisions in Clause 9(1) of the Order 2004 that fair price shops run by private persons shall not be continued and within six months from the commencement of the Order, fair price shops run by private persons shall be cancelled are not discriminatory and are not violative of Article 14 of the Constitution.

(ii) the contract between the petitioners who are private persons and the State Government in so far as it provides for running fair price shops by the petitioners who are private persons have become unlawful after the expiry of six months' period from the date of enforcement of the Order 2004 and have to be cancelled.

(iii) The provisions of Sub-clauses (4) (c) and (5) of Clause 9 of the Order 2004 in so far as they provide that Consumer Co-operatives which are not registered under the Chhattisgarh Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 or which are registered after 1st November 2000 will not be allotted fair price shops are ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution.

(iv) The provision in Sub Clauses (3) and (4) of Clause 9 of the Order 2004 for allotment of fair price shops to primary Credit Co-operative Societies is ultra vires the Chhattisgarh Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 and only those out of "Other Co-operative Societies" can be allotted fair price shops under the Order 2004 which are permitted under the Chhattisgarh Co-operative Societies Act, 1960 or the Chhattisgarh Swayatya Sahkarita Adhiniyam, 1999 to run fair price shops.

(v) Co-operative Societies which have been running fair price shops prior to the Order 2004 will continue to run the fair price shops in terms of the agreement between the Co-operative Societies and the State Government for the full period for which the agreement has been made and allotment made in their favour can be cancelled only terms of the said agreement.

(vi) The provisions in Sub Clauses (3) and (4) of Clauses 9 of the Order 2004 for allotting fa9ir price shops to LAMPS, Gram Panchayats, Women's Self Help Groups and Forest Protection Committees are valid, but the provisions in the said Sub Clauses (3) and (4) of Clauses 9 of the Order 2004 providing for reservation and priority in favour of some of the specified agencies in the matter of allotment of fair price shops are ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution.

(vii) The agencies specified in the Order 2004 are to be considered for allotment of fair price shops without any priority or reservation in favour of any category of specified agencies and the guideline to be followed for making the allotment of fair price shops as indicated in Section 3 of the Act and the Order 2004 is that fair price shop would be allotted to an agency specified in the Order 2004 which can best distribute essential commodities to the ration cardholders at fair prices in any particular area.

(viii) Sub clause (3)(c) of Clause 9 in so far as it provides for appointment of all sales persons in the fair price shops operating in ITDP areas from BPL families of local tribal communities is ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution.

(ix) Sub clause (7) of Clause 9 of the Order 2004 in so far as it provides for appointment of sales persons in fair price shops in other areas only from among Scheduled Castes and Other Backward Castes I ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution.

The writ petitions are disposed of with the aforesaid declarations and directions and the interim orders passed by the Court stand vacated. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, however, the parties shall bear their own cost."

When the matter stood thus, these writ petitions were filed complaining mainly that despite the judgment of this Court in W.P. No.445 of 2005 and the batch, "the respondents under obvious political pressure have issued the impugned order for taking back all the fair price shops from the petitioners except one each in their areas of operation and allotting taken back shops primarily to the Women Self Help Groups which agencies are motley composition of political workers and inexperienced women without any comparative competence to run such fair price shops which the petitioners possess". According to the petitioners, the Circulars and Orders issued by the respondents are contrary to the contents and the spirit of the judgment of this Court in W.P. NO.445/2005 and the batch as well as ultra vires of the Essential Commodities Act.

(3) In the premise of the above contentions, in W.P. No.5110/2005 the following relief(s) are sought :

"7. RELIEFS SOUGHT:

The petitioner craves the indulgence of the Hon'ble Court;

1. To kindly call for the records from the respondents.
2. To kindly issue a writ of certiorari for quashment of the impugned order dated 6/10/2005 (Annexure P/8), communication dated 7/10/2005 (Annexure P/9) and Clause 3 (iii) of the circular issued by the Principal Secretary, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection Department being violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.
3. To kindly issue a writ of mandamus to the respondents to make objective parameters/guidelines for allotment of fair price shops before awarding any letter of appointment.

4. To kindly quash the circular issued by the Principal Secretary dated 23/3/2005.

5. To kindly quash the Clause 9(2) of the Order 2004 being ultra vires to the Constitution of India.

6. To kindly quash the order vide No./273/Khadya Lipik/BNo. Shi. Kra. 80/2005 dated 14.10.05 issued by the respondent no.6.

7. To kindly make any other orders or writs that may be deemed fit and just including awarding of the costs to the petitioners."

(4) Opposing the writ petitions, the respondents have filed their returns.

(5) On behalf of the petitioners, Shri Kanak Tiwari, learned Sr. Counsel made his submissions. Shri Kanak Tiwari referred to the pleadings and grounds taken in W.P. No.5110/2005 only and not to the pleadings, grounds or relief(s) claimed in any other writ petitions. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners in various other writ petitions, after the conclusion of the submission of Shri Kanak Tiwari, only submitted that they would adopt the submissions of Shri Kanak Tiwari and they did not argue any point in support of the writ petitions in which they appeared.

(6) Although number of reliefs are sought in the writ petitions, for example, in W.P. No.5110/2005, Shri Kanak Tiwari would not press for all those reliefs, but, confine his submission to quashing of Clause 9 (2) of the Control Order, 2004, Annexures-P/8 and P/9 Order and Communication dated 06.10.2005 and 07.10.2005 respectively and order of the 6th respondent dated 14.10.2005. Although the actual pleading part of W.P. No.5110 of 2005 runs to 21 typed pages (total pages 35), the main compalint of the petitioner which we could gather from the pleading as well as the submissions of Shri Kanak Tiwari is that notwithstanding the judgment of this Court in W.P. No.445/2005 and the batch and without there being any enabling provision under the Control Order, 2004 to restrict the number of shops, the respondents-State Authorities high-handedly and under political pressure sought to cancel number of shops allotted to the petitioners- societies except one each in their areas of operation. There is no need for us to decide whether in terms of the judgment of this Court in W.P. No.445/2005 and the batch, the respondents authorities could have restricted the shops only to one and whether the impugned orders passed by the authorities and officers of the Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection are justified or not. We say this, because, there has been a development after the disposal of Writ Petition No.445 of 2005 and the batch by this Court on 06/09/2005 and after these writ petitions were filed in this Court. In the return filed on behalf of the State of Chhattisgarh, it is stated that in order to comply with the declarations made and directions issued by this Court in W.P. No.445 of 2005 and the batch, the Government has amended the Control Order, 2004 by issuing a notification dated 21/03/2006 marked as Annexure-R/1. The amended sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order, 2004 reads as follows:

> "(2) (a) In district headquarters Fair Price Shops shall be allotted by Food Controller/Food Officer on approval of Collector and in remaining places of District, by sub divisional officer of sub division on approval of Collector.

(b) In areas where more than one primary credit co-operative societies exists, allocation shall be made on the recommendations of the Deputy Registrar/Assistant Registrar of district.

Recommendations shall be on the basis of economic status, ability to supply the foodgrain and other essential commodities to ration cardholders regularly, and such other relevant factors, which may be determined by the State Government from time to time.

(c) Fair price shop shall be allotted to only those Co-operative society which is constituted with the object of distributing or selling essential commodities to its member and to other people in the area.

Ordinarily one fair price shop shall be allotted to any agency for its area of operation but to ensure regular supplies of essential commodities to ration cardholders, authorized officer may allot more than one fair price shop to any agency by assigning specific reason, but in any case the number will not exceed three fair price shops.

(d) For allotment of Fair Price Shop an advertisement shall be published in local newspapers and information of it shall be given to concerned urban local bodies and Gram Panchayat compulsorily."

(7) In the course of hearing, we were told that even the validity of the amended provision of the Control Order, 2004 vide notification dated 21.03.2006 was assailed in a batch of writ petitions in this Court and they are pending. In view of this development, reviewing the validity of the un-amended sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order,2004 impugned in this batch of writ petitions would not arise. When that was pointed out by us to Shri Kanak Tiwari, learned Sr. Counsel, he would submit that though that is the position, nevertheless, the Court should look into the validity of the un-amended sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order,2004 and see the high-handed action and conduct of the State and the State Authorities and scant disrespect shown by them to the judgment of this Court dated 06.09.2005 made in W.P. No.445/2005 and the batch. We could not accede to the request of Shri Kanak Tiwari. It is well settled that the Court should undertake the constitutional validity of a legislation or validity of a delegated or subordinate legislation only if that is absolutely necessary in order to decide a lis brought before the Court and to grant relief to an aggrieved party. The un-amended provisions of sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order, 2004 is no longer a part of the statute and it disappeared from the statute with w.e.f. 21.03.2006 when it was replaced by a new provision. Of course, it is the contention of Shri Kanak Tiwari that even the amended sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order, 2004 vide notification dated 21.03.2006 is invalid being violative of the declarations and directions issued by this Court in W.P. No.445/2005 and batch in its judgment dated 06.09.2005. Whether it is so or not need not be gone into in this batch of writ petitions. Since the amended provision of sub-Clause (2) of Clause 9 of the Control Order, 2004 has been assailed in a batch of writ petitions, it is open for the petitioners to urge all permissible grounds to attack the validity of the same in those writ petitions. Nobody can take away that liberty of the petitioners. If the examination of the validity of un-amended provision of sub-Clause (2) of

105

Clause 9 of Control Order, 2004 cannot be gone into in these writ petitions in view of the amendment of that provision w.e.f. 21.03.2006 for the reasons stated above, for the same reasons reviewing the validity of certain orders, circulars and communications issued under the un-amended provisions of the Control Order, 2004 impugned in this batch of writ petitions would also not arise.

(8) In the result, we dismiss these writ petitions as infructuous and unnecessary. In the facts and circumstances of the case, we direct that the parties shall bear their respective costs in all these writ petitions.
